

Name _____

- Some pronouns and pronoun/verb contractions are homophones.
- Don't confuse these homophones: there/they're/their, there's/theirs, its/it's, and your/you're.

Read each sentence. Choose the word in parentheses that best completes the sentence. Write it on the line provided.

1. "Watch (your, you're) step," the tour guide warned. _____
2. "(Your, You're) about to enter the main cavern." _____
3. The students avoided the rocks and stones in (there, their) path. _____
4. "(Its, It's) really muddy down here," one of them said. _____
5. "That's because (theirs, there's) so much moisture," the guide replied. _____
6. "The stream we saw spends most of (it's, its) time underground." _____
7. A student asked, "What are those things up (there, their) above us called?"

8. "(They're, Their) called stalactites," the guide answered. _____
9. "(Your, You're) looking at structures that took centuries to form." _____
10. The teacher took a picture with her camera, and the students took photos with (there's, theirs). _____